SPORT STYLE
HOW'S THAT

CHAPMAN BAGS' LOOKS, quality and durability are informed by the fact that they're intended for use in the field by sportsmen. The result is that neither the shape nor the materials are going to show their age for years to come. Navy bag, £295; red bag, £109 (chapmanbags.com)

BRETON SWEATER
RIGHT STRIPE

THE WELCOME OVERHAUL at French Connection continues apace this season, as the clothes now better reflect its intriguing ad campaign. While the luxuriantly bearded model is clearly at the vanguard of fashion's new overt masculinity, the Breton sweater is an easy way in (even for clean-shaven men). £90 (frenchconnection.com)

POCKET POTENTIAL
FOB YOU OFF

NOW THAT BOW TIES are back from the brink of fashion oblivion, it seems fair to speculate about what other hitherto archaic accessories might make a return. Swiss brand Mondaine has introduced a fob watch that's a handsome and moderately contemporary take on this old-school form. £155 (mondaine.com)

ACCESSORIES
HIDE TO SEEK

AUSTIN REED'S NEW accessories in smart black leather, made to mark the store's 110th anniversary, hit the spot. While the wallet is obviously good, the coin tray (an item that doesn't seem useful until you use one) is the sleeper hit of the collection. From £50 (austinreed.co.uk)
